ART JOURNAL ADVERTISER.

"UNQUESTIONABLY THE BEST SUSTAINED WORK OF THE KIND IN THE WORLD."

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

CRITICAL NOTICES OF THE PRESS

No Magazine in Europe or America is so well known; none has half as many readers; and, we may safely say, none has received so large a tribute of admiration from the cultivated classes, that delight in a healthy, diversified, elevating periodical literature. It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more enter-taining friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore).

Twenty-five cents buys it—the cheapest, richest, and most lasting luxury for the money that we know. Three dollars secures it for one year, and what three dollars ever went so far? Put the same amount in clothes, eating, drinking, furniture, and how much of a substantial thing is obtained? If ideas, facts, and sentiments, have a monetary value—above all, if the humor that refreshes, the pleasantness that bring a gentle smile, and brighten the passage of a truth to your brain, and the happy combination of the real and the imaginative, without which no one can live a life above the animal, are to be put into the scale opposite to dollars and cents, then you may be certain, that if Harper were three or four times as dear, it would amply repay its price. It is a Magazine proper, with the idea and purpose of a Magazine—not a book, not a scientific periodical, nor yet a supplier of light gossip and chatty anecdotes—but a Magazine that takes every form of interesting, dignified, and attractive literature in its grasp.—Southern Times.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading, such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New-York Observer.

Unquestionably it is the best sustained work of the kind in the language; that is to say, in the world. The splendid monthly essays from the Editor's Table are above price.—New-York Christian Advocate and Journal.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of HARPER'S MAGAZINE, a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies, in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American People, and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each Number contains fully 144 pages of instructive matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—TRUBNER'S Guide to American Literature, London.

THE BEST, CHEAPEST, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL FAMILY PAPER IN THE UNION.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

PRICE FIVE CENTS A NUMBER; $2 50 A YEAR.

CRITICAL NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The variety, the sprightliness, and the value of the contents. There is a complete history of nearly all the public events of the year—there are ample dissertations on the leading topics—there are the graceful triflings (not always trivial, however, but profoundly instructive) of the Lounger—there are the tales and stories of Bulwer, Dickens, Thackeray, &c.—there are the new and old—and, above all, there are those striking wood-cut representations of contemporary men and things, of follies and fashions, and of customs and countries—all contained within a single volume, and to be had for a song. It is a grand picture-book of the human life of the nineteenth century, in all its phases, and in nearly all nations. Every class of readers, moreover, may be interested by it—the old and thoughtful, the young and gay; the man of business, the child and the woman.—New-York Evening Post.

We would not so often call attention to Harper's Weekly if we were not well satisfied that it is the best family paper published in the United States, and for that reason, and that alone, we desire to see it undermine and root out a certain kind of literature too prevalent, which blunts the morals of its readers, vivifies their taste for sensible reading, and is already bad in its effects.—New London Advertiser.

As Harper's Magazine has done much to drive out the yellow-covered literature, so we should be glad to see the new Weekly take the place of those papers which depend for excitement on poor, trashy novels.—New-York Evangelist.

It (Harper's Weekly) is the proper size for binding, and an excellent opportunity is afforded for any one who wishes to preserve the history of the country as it is made, to do so by filing Harper's Weekly.—Pontiac (Mich.) Jacksonian.

Its fresh leaves, its clear type, its entertaining variety, its severe but just criticisms upon the follies of the times, its elegantly-written and instructive articles, and its able correspondence, all combine to make it the model newspaper of our country, and one that every family must prize. Its condensed weekly summary of Foreign and Domestic Intelligence is altogether superior to that contained in any other journal. Being published, too, in a form for preservation and binding, if taken care of as it deserves to be, it will be found in future years as welcome a companion for the family and fireside as the day on which it was first perused.—McConnellsburg (O.) Inquirer.
